Instrumentation:

The Performance Academy is designed for fiddlers but people playing other instruments may be invited to perform with the group as an accompanying voice. Special guest groups may be included as part of the show format.

Shows:

Four shows per year will be scheduled, one per season. The Performance Academy shows are free to the community but if the show is for a profit entity, a donation to the non-profit Mr. Holland's Opus Foundation is suggested. This organization provides musical instruments for financially challenged school children.

Notes:

Celia, a full time professional entertainer, acknowledges that successful and gratifying performances are achieved through a process of continued experience. This program is designed to groom you, the aspiring fiddler for the stage. Whether you are 7 or 70 and whether you want to play for church or the Grand Ol' Opry, this program is designed to help you share your talent with your community and beyond.
